LARRY HALVORSON

Even though I only met you this year I think we have had a lot of fun. I am looking forward to knowing you better next year.

Good Luck,

Pete

Happy,
Is the most darling boy I know, & I mean that seriously. I've had to dash much fun with you this year, going to all the dances etc., I can hardly believe it.
I have a date Dickie leaves, well
I want to wish you the very best in future years & every success & happiness
as much fun & pleasure had this year. Love always,
Sally

You are a swell guy. I hope in the following years of our life our friendship will be still everlasting. Next year Larry will be playing fullback (right) on the first string offense (I hope). To an "all stater?" I wish the best of luck always.

Your Pal,

Jack Slemer

Larry -

Without you, the class would have been a complete dud. Keep [illegible] making it [illegible] easy enjoyable.

Tracksters Train For Cinder Fame

Pounding the cinders this fall are members of Coach Dale Torrence's long-winded cross-country squad.

West's runners chalked up a winning 30-27 point victory over seasoned North High in the first seasonal meet as J. R. Stephens almost pulled up to state whiz, North's Joe Ehlers. After placing seven of the first twelve varsity trackers over the line at the canal run, West then suffered a JV loss in the same meet, 26-31.

West's thinclads outdistanced Tucson the following week with a 36-21 tally for T-Bird scorecards and placed eleven men in the first twenty to finish. Leading the pack behind Tucson's first placer, J. R. Stephens did his share on behalf of the Westerners along with teammates Steve Acheson and Bob Hobbs.

The Price? One thin Dime.

ALL-STARS, TOO! Taking top spots on the Thunderbird squad this year were these hard driving Westerners who pulled high honors on Arizona's all-state grid squad. Quaterbacks Jim Walsh and Charles Van Epps, Center Lynn Saracino, and rounding it out were guards Stan Godbehere and Wayne Magnusson.

UNSTOPPABLE! Speedy West back Jack Minneci (17) took off before a packed field to gain additional yardage during the West-South grid tilt. Helping out are Westerners Wayne Magnusson (46), George Waldmann (35), Lynn Saracino (38), and Max Ramenofsky (44).

DETERMINED! Ace speedster Jack Minneci, right, wasn't the only one who found the going rough against Tucson High this season, as the Badgers handed startled Westerners a 21-14 defeat. Although at the season's close, due to an ineligible player, Tucson handed back the hard-fought win giving West top all-state honors along with high ranking Mesa.

TRAPPED! Fleet quarterback Jim Mason found little trouble with the die-hard Yumans this year as Flocksters tumbled over the Crims for the close-out of the season. Driving hard for the 38-0 smash, T-Birds plowed through a baffled Crim line aided capably by game standouts Larry Nathanson and top-notch end, Senior Gordon Smith.

WEST 56 — CATAINA 6: Off to a rip-roarin' seasonal start, West's smoothly teamed T-Birds let loose with a flashy show that boosted school spirit to fever pitch. Standouts showed great strength in Stan Godbehere and his 13 tackles and in speeder Vic Holmes, top yardage maker.

WEST 20 — CAMELBACK 12: Power-packed varsity footballers clashed with Spartan gridders. Jim Mason, star quarterback made a night of it as Coach Vern Braasch led the flock to another AA win.

WEST 13 — MESA 20: Battling it out in a close one, Mesa's half, Warren Livingston and West's Jim Mason sparked the season's first loss with a fine ball-carrying game.

WEST 26 — PHOENIX UNION 13: Stomping fading football power, PU, Flocksters pooled their efforts and came up with a sweeping day game victory to add to the Western laurels. Leading the West crew Kelly Seidel, Murray Goodman, and Jim Mason poured on the steam by following up on an early game lead and came up on top of the Coyote pack.

WEST 38 — YUMA 0: In the standout of the season, West crewmen pulled off a bright and snappy hex win in a well-played showy smear. Back Kelly Seidel and teammate Gordon Smith packed the game with fast action and plenty of yardage as well as hot connecting passes.

WEST 54 — ST. MARY'S 13: Wrapping up one of West's greatest grid seasons, Flock leaders Jack Minneci, Back, Tackles Charlie Van Epps and Lynn Saracino all helped in the out-maneuvering of a light Knight offensive-defensive pattern. Season honors were split the next week with the receiver of the annual Jim Edwards memorial being two players, Gordon Smith and Jim Mason.

ROUGH BREAK! South's powerhouse back Birney Groom found able West gridders no easy fare as fast T-Birds stopped the Rebels with a resounding 20-12 final tally. Gridders are Southerner Mack Wood (21), West's Charlie Van Epps (25), Bob Marsh (30), Wayne Magnusson (46), and Stan Godbehere (36).

GET THAT BALL! With a burst of grid skill, West varsity footballers delivered a walloping defeat to rival North High, 36-24. Mangling the Mustang (28) are T-Birds Bob Marsh (30) and Jim Mason (on top of the heap). Closing in on the spinning pigskin are West starters Lynn Saracino (38), Ray Webb (16) and Gordon Smith (47).

TIGHT SPOT! Westerner Murray Goodman shows his solid determination as he plows through the Phoenix Union line and turns a fumble to a useful 10 yard gain. Other dark jerseyed Thunderbirds are Larry Walker (23), Lynn Saracino. Up front are Coyotes Dick Moore (61), Bobby Young making the stop, and ace Gary La Valley (18).

Guard

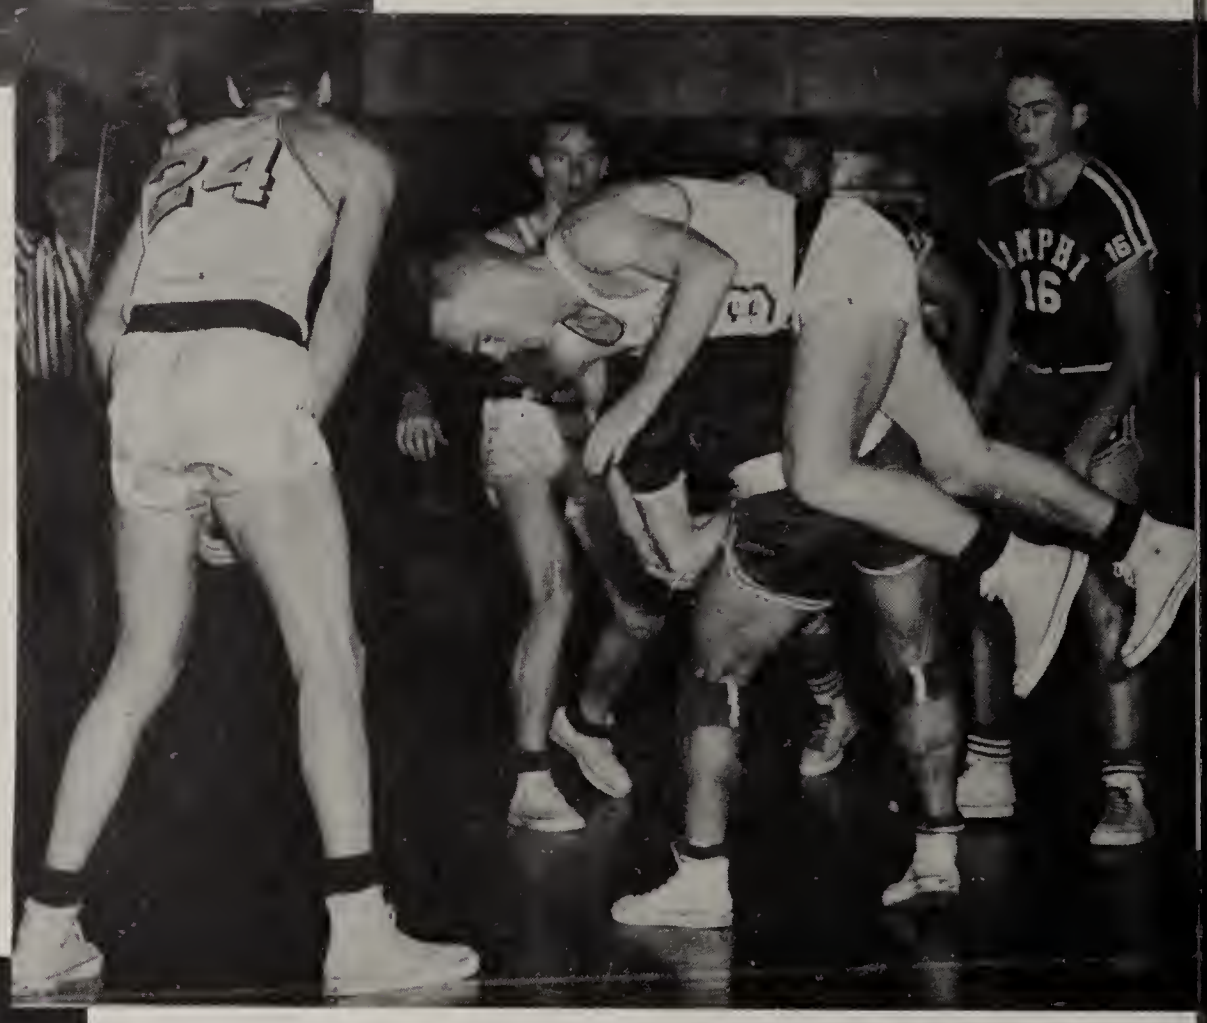

EASY, BIG FELLA! Keeping tab on the game as another Western win nears is North's Lloyd Aycock (44), ambling T-Bird John Nickum (18), Eric Karson (12), and a busy Mustang cager. West breezed by the Mustang hoopsters the first game 61-48 and also took the next 74-63.

WHERE'D IT GO? Power packed court star Jim Mason really finds himself hung up against Amphi of Tucson, but not when it comes to real showy court capers as the 73-46 West win proves. Senior hustler Keith Hooker pulled through for second high point man just under top sacker Dan Anstett.

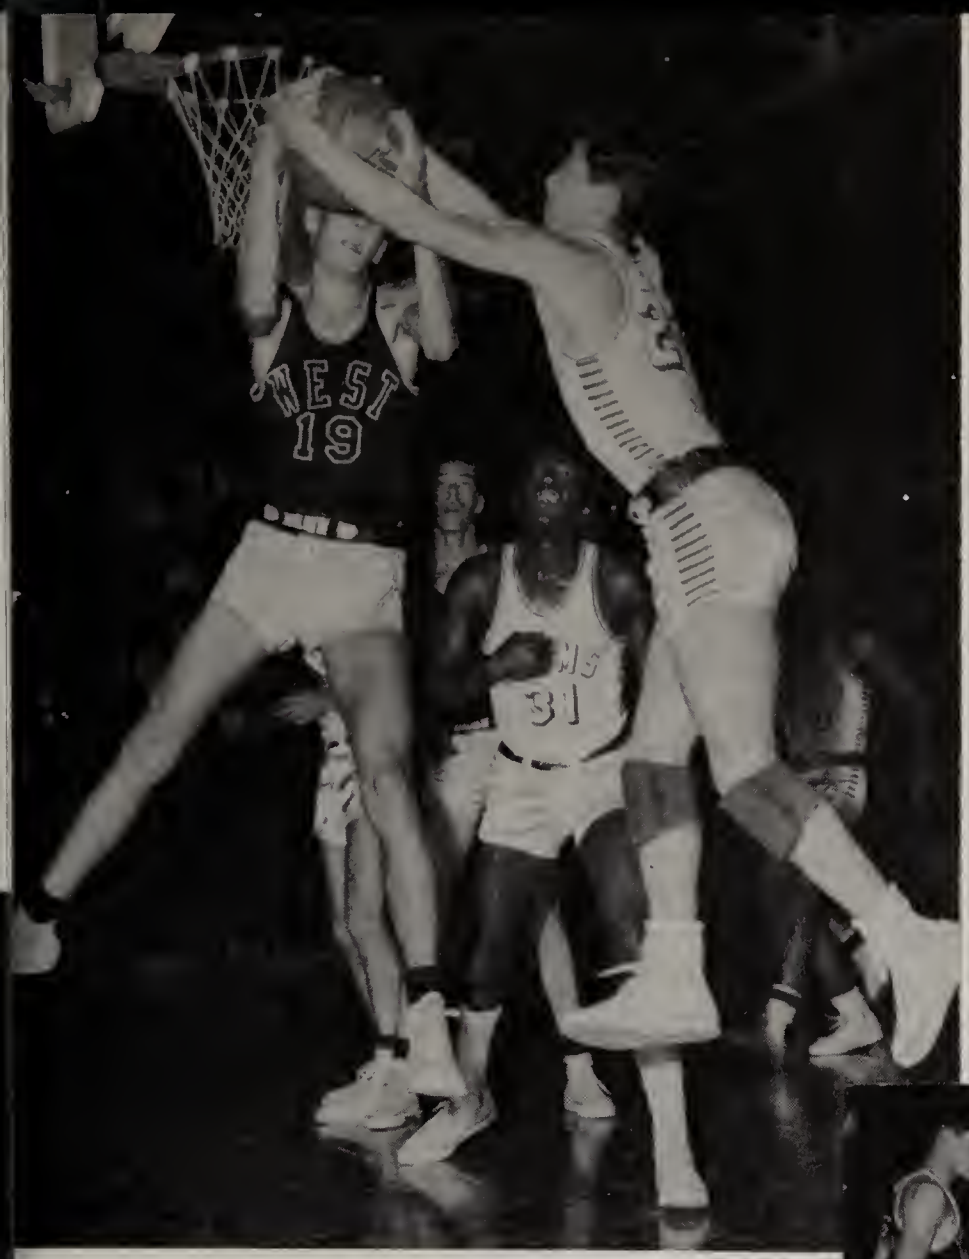
WEST 45, 45	SOUTH MOUNTAIN 52, 52
WEST 44	TUCSON 50
WEST 46, 38	PHOENIX UNION 67, 49
WEST 39	PUEBLO 37
WEST 61, 74	NORTH 48, 63
WEST 75	CATALINA 53
WEST 55, 49	MESA 41, 62
WEST 56, 49	ST. MARY'S 42, 43
WEST 57	YUMA 51
WEST 42, 29	CAMELBACK 63, 33
WEST 73	AMPHITHEATER 46



HASSLE! Top West cager Dan Anstett (19) shows his determined rebounding antics to a hopeful Yuma Crim as the Birds pull to a fast 57-51 AA court win. Pulling away in the last few minutes before a dazzled Yuma crowd, Thunderbirds John Nickum, Jim Mason, and Gordon Smith took over the last half for the final waxing of the Crim cagers. Anstett led the Flock with 18 points while Smith and Mason sacked 16 apiece. In air is Yuman Ray Phipps (23), others are Crim Sam Ezell (31) and in center West's John Nickum.

MID-SEASON TOURNEY . . . After turning in fine performances during the Valley's Invitational Christmas Basketball Tournament, T-Birds moved into the finals for a well-manned attack against the giant Phoenix Union hoopsters. Out maneuvering the Coyotes at every turn, the fighting flock fell in the fast last quarter with a nerve racking 46-43 to come in second in the 1st annual mid-season playoff.

STATE TOURNAMENT . . . Working up from the bottom of the heap after a winning flip of the coin with a hot Mesa team, Thunderbirds showed their skill as they pulled from the bottom berth to a near state title. Hacking down Tucson 55-52 and Pueblo 53-48 Flocksters went up to the decisive split second finish with Camelback which ended with the Spartans holding the state crown and an eager West crowd next to the top in the state standings.

SCOOTERS! Making a plunge for the star of a near upset, West's Gordon Smith tries for a speedy ball as the seconds squeeze by in a hustling West-Phoenix Union match. At left is PU's Delbert Hodge while shadowing Smith is scrapping T-Bird Jim Mason. Thunderbirds played a really great pair of games in regular AA season schedule but in the Christmas tournament gave PU its biggest scare as the Westerners nearly pulled down the Coyotes from their long-time win streak with a rousing 46-43 scrap. Putting up a fine stand against PU's speedster Frank Mass and Allen (Stretch) Holmes, Thunderbirds played an outstanding series to prove their court skill.

FROSH

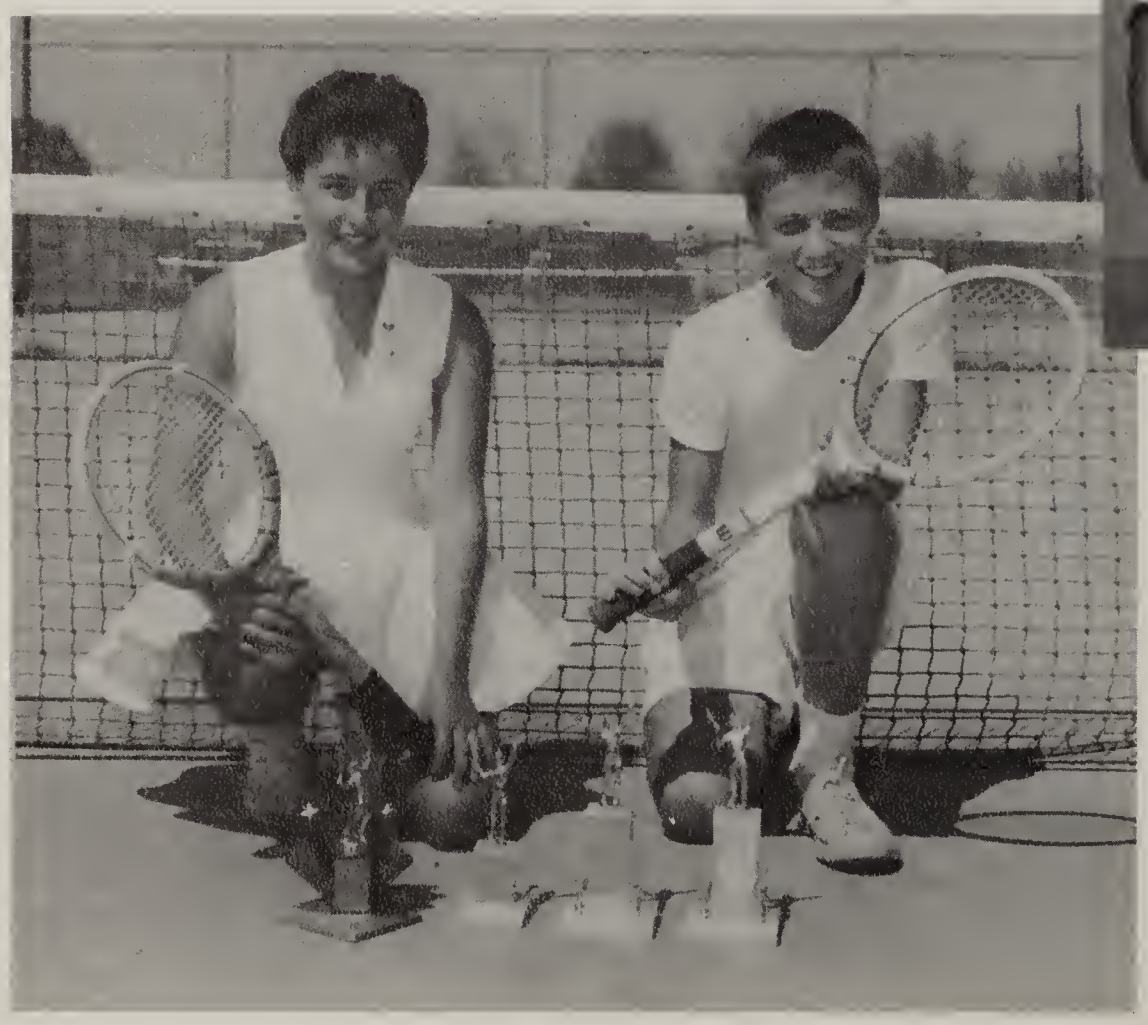
SPORTS NOTES



PROUD CHAMPS! Shown above are two of West's most valuable varsity cagers, Dan Anstett and Gordon Smith, receiving the second place trophy taken by the Thunderbirds in the state tourney. The two were also members of the All-State hoop squad.

SPORTSMANSHIP! Awarded the Bill Perry Sportsmanship Award of the Arizona Closed Tennis Tournament held at Encanto Park, these two outstanding examples of West High teamwork and sportsmanship are Judy Mecey and Bill Lenoir. Displaying their trophies won during the tournament, in which both paired with a talented teammate to win the Junior doubles for both girls and boys.

Sharp ball playing, infield or out. This was the setup employed by speedy members of West's high flying varsity baseball squad during a heated '57 season.

Led by hard-slinging pitchers Bill Lindner, Noel Rudd, and Gary Mattson, an able T-Bird team rallied to set up a good season for this year's tough varsity schedule. Senior catcher Fred Hallberg proved an invaluable possession for a hard-driving varsity coach mentor Bill Munson whose big catcher pulled off many a valuable play for the starting nine.

West's experienced men pulled through with flying colors once again to cinch many a game in a tight squeeze. Starting off the season with a decisive 10-2 win over South High, the Thunderbirds have moved right along to come up almost to Arizona's Central League top standers.

During the season West handed a setback to tough Phoenix Union 2-1 and gave out many a fighting squad defeat under the capable guiding hand of Coach Munson. By the end of the season, which comes after this annual deadline, West seems well on her way to coming out in fine style in the AA standings.

FORGET IT! Third base action man Don Brown lets out with a signal as a determined Rebel slider successfully pulls a fast one on the battling T-Bird nine during the West-South diamond scramble.

HIGH ONE! Connecting with a good one pitched by a busy Coyote hurler, an ace Thunderbird swatter belts out another hard one during the heated West-Phoenix Union diamond scramble. A determinded bunch of Westerners tore up the turf as they made the Coyotes turn tail with a hard-fought 2-1 victory.

STUMBLER! Making his bid for a good play during the rugged West-Pueblo run battle is a die-hard member of the Pueblo squad. Ready for action while guarding his spot is Flock hustler John Reminger who pulled through on his way to help out the T-Birds gain another ball game win 10-5. In spurts of West's ball-handling ability, Fred Hallberg and Jim Mason boosted the total to wind out the game in the ninth.

SHY TYPE! Trying either to take it or break for it is a dogged member of North's Mustang crew. Defending the pad for West is varsity hustler John Reminger who readies himself for the final split second decision.

BASEBALL

SLIDER! Moving across the field in a sure base-gainer is a rough-riding Westerner whose effortless antics are sure to add another base to the total compiled by a fast-working T-Bird nine. Another AA game flashed by leaving the Flocksters hanging with a 6-1 conference loss to a busy Mustang herd.

SAFE! Close for comfort but well in hand, able teamster baseball player Don Brown pulls another winning play during West's rampaging game with old rival Tucson.

JV BASEBALLERS

WINDERS! Taking off on the last yards before the end of their mile run are top West distance men Ken Pablo (right) and Sam Karaba (middle). Showing the endurance and effortless ability, both pounded out good seasonal records for a standout distance season.

WRAPPING up a rough and tumble mat season this year, West's fast-working grapplers came way out of the high school heap to pull through a near record showing. Outstanding matches of the year list the 25-19 defeat handed the Mesa squad and the 57-0 win over a bewildered Scottsdale crew. This was the first time that a grapple squad has been shut out since wrestling became a statewide sport four years ago.

HASSLERS! (left) Showing the skill and determination necessary for their varsity squad spots are two of the standouts on the Western crew, Cliff Henry and Bruce Frye. Giving a pro hand to the show is varsity coach Vern Braasch.

SCRAPPER! With the situation well in hand, top Senior groaner Cliff Henry handles a smooth move to down teammate Bruce Frye in a pre-match warm up that the T-Birds took over Sunnyslope, 42-25.

NETTERS! Compiling the best season record in the state this year are West's varsity court slammers who wound up with an unequaled 12-0 match standing. Closest matches of the season were the 6-1 winning Western games against Judson and North, while all the others were hard-played shut-outs at 7-0.

Playing under leader Chris Carnahan, top T-Bird tennis coach, this year's crew shows much future promise as they will lose only three players after graduation. The greater part of the team will then be made up of next year's Sophomores except for Junior Bob Foltz.

SLAM! Westerners showing their style on top of page and above are Senior stars Jim Carroll and Marty Fedigan who really earned their keep on the varsity squad.

WINNERS! Holding the trophy which they deservedly swept in the heated Thunderbird Open, Thunderbird racketeers Judy Mecey, Nancy Schall, and Monica Heidecker display the enthusiastic spirit of teamwork that played such an important part in this year's determined tennis team.

Notable events in this year's matches were the 7-0 defeats handed a unsure Glendale team and an experienced North court squad. Also the twice delt 5-2 to PU and the single 5-2 to Yuma.

Only loss of the season was to Yuma in the team's second match who, on West's home courts, managed to squeeze by to edge out the varsity slammers 4-3. Another of the net wins was the West-Tucson team serve-fest which left the T-Bird netters with a well-battled 6-1 victory.

Special honors to Sophomore Judy Mecey who was awarded the sportsmanship trophy of the Arizona Closed Tennis Tournament after being defeated by Patsy Palmer.

West's outstanding JV squad, undefeated during the season, is made up of top courtsters Mary Ann Monsees, Suzanne Ledbetter, Marlys Doyle, Adriene Cotterman, and Susan Mason.

HOLD IT! Next to the top in varsity competition, pert Nancy Schall pulled herself to her spot with her fine tennis ability and dogged determination. Doing right well, this varsity miss promises even a better season next year.

After an outstanding season, the tournament's top notch squad also proved to be none other than the straight flying arrowists from Thunderbird Town.

Competing with over 100 girls from all over the state, the West group massacred almost everyone else in all events to pull out on top, the first time in 17 years that one school has captured all honors in all classes.

In the novelty shoots, Westerners captured all places 1-9 except for the number 7 spot to really wrap up the entire meet for the targest conscious T-Bird coeds.

Dear,

I'd've real well luv that I haven't known two long but I sure do think you're swell. I hope to see you next year or at least write.

Good luck

Always,

Your Buddy

"SF"

P.S. Be good! and: Don't let that girdle punch you too hard, lady. make this page full & continue to stay as sweet and wonderful as you have always been. I'll never forget ya.

Dear Larry,

I will never forget all the fun we had on the Girl's League Formal and also at the Prom. I hope you didn't have too much trouble pushing that "TRUCK" around.

I have never met anyone with whom I have had more fun than one of the girls I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I only wish I could've been able to know you better before I started (what I said I'll never do again) going steady. Since everyone else seems to think you'll make all state, I'm sure of it. Work hard at it and you can do it. You certainly have what it takes.

Surely hope I can see you this summer. Come on home sometime.

I'm not KIDDIN'. Love

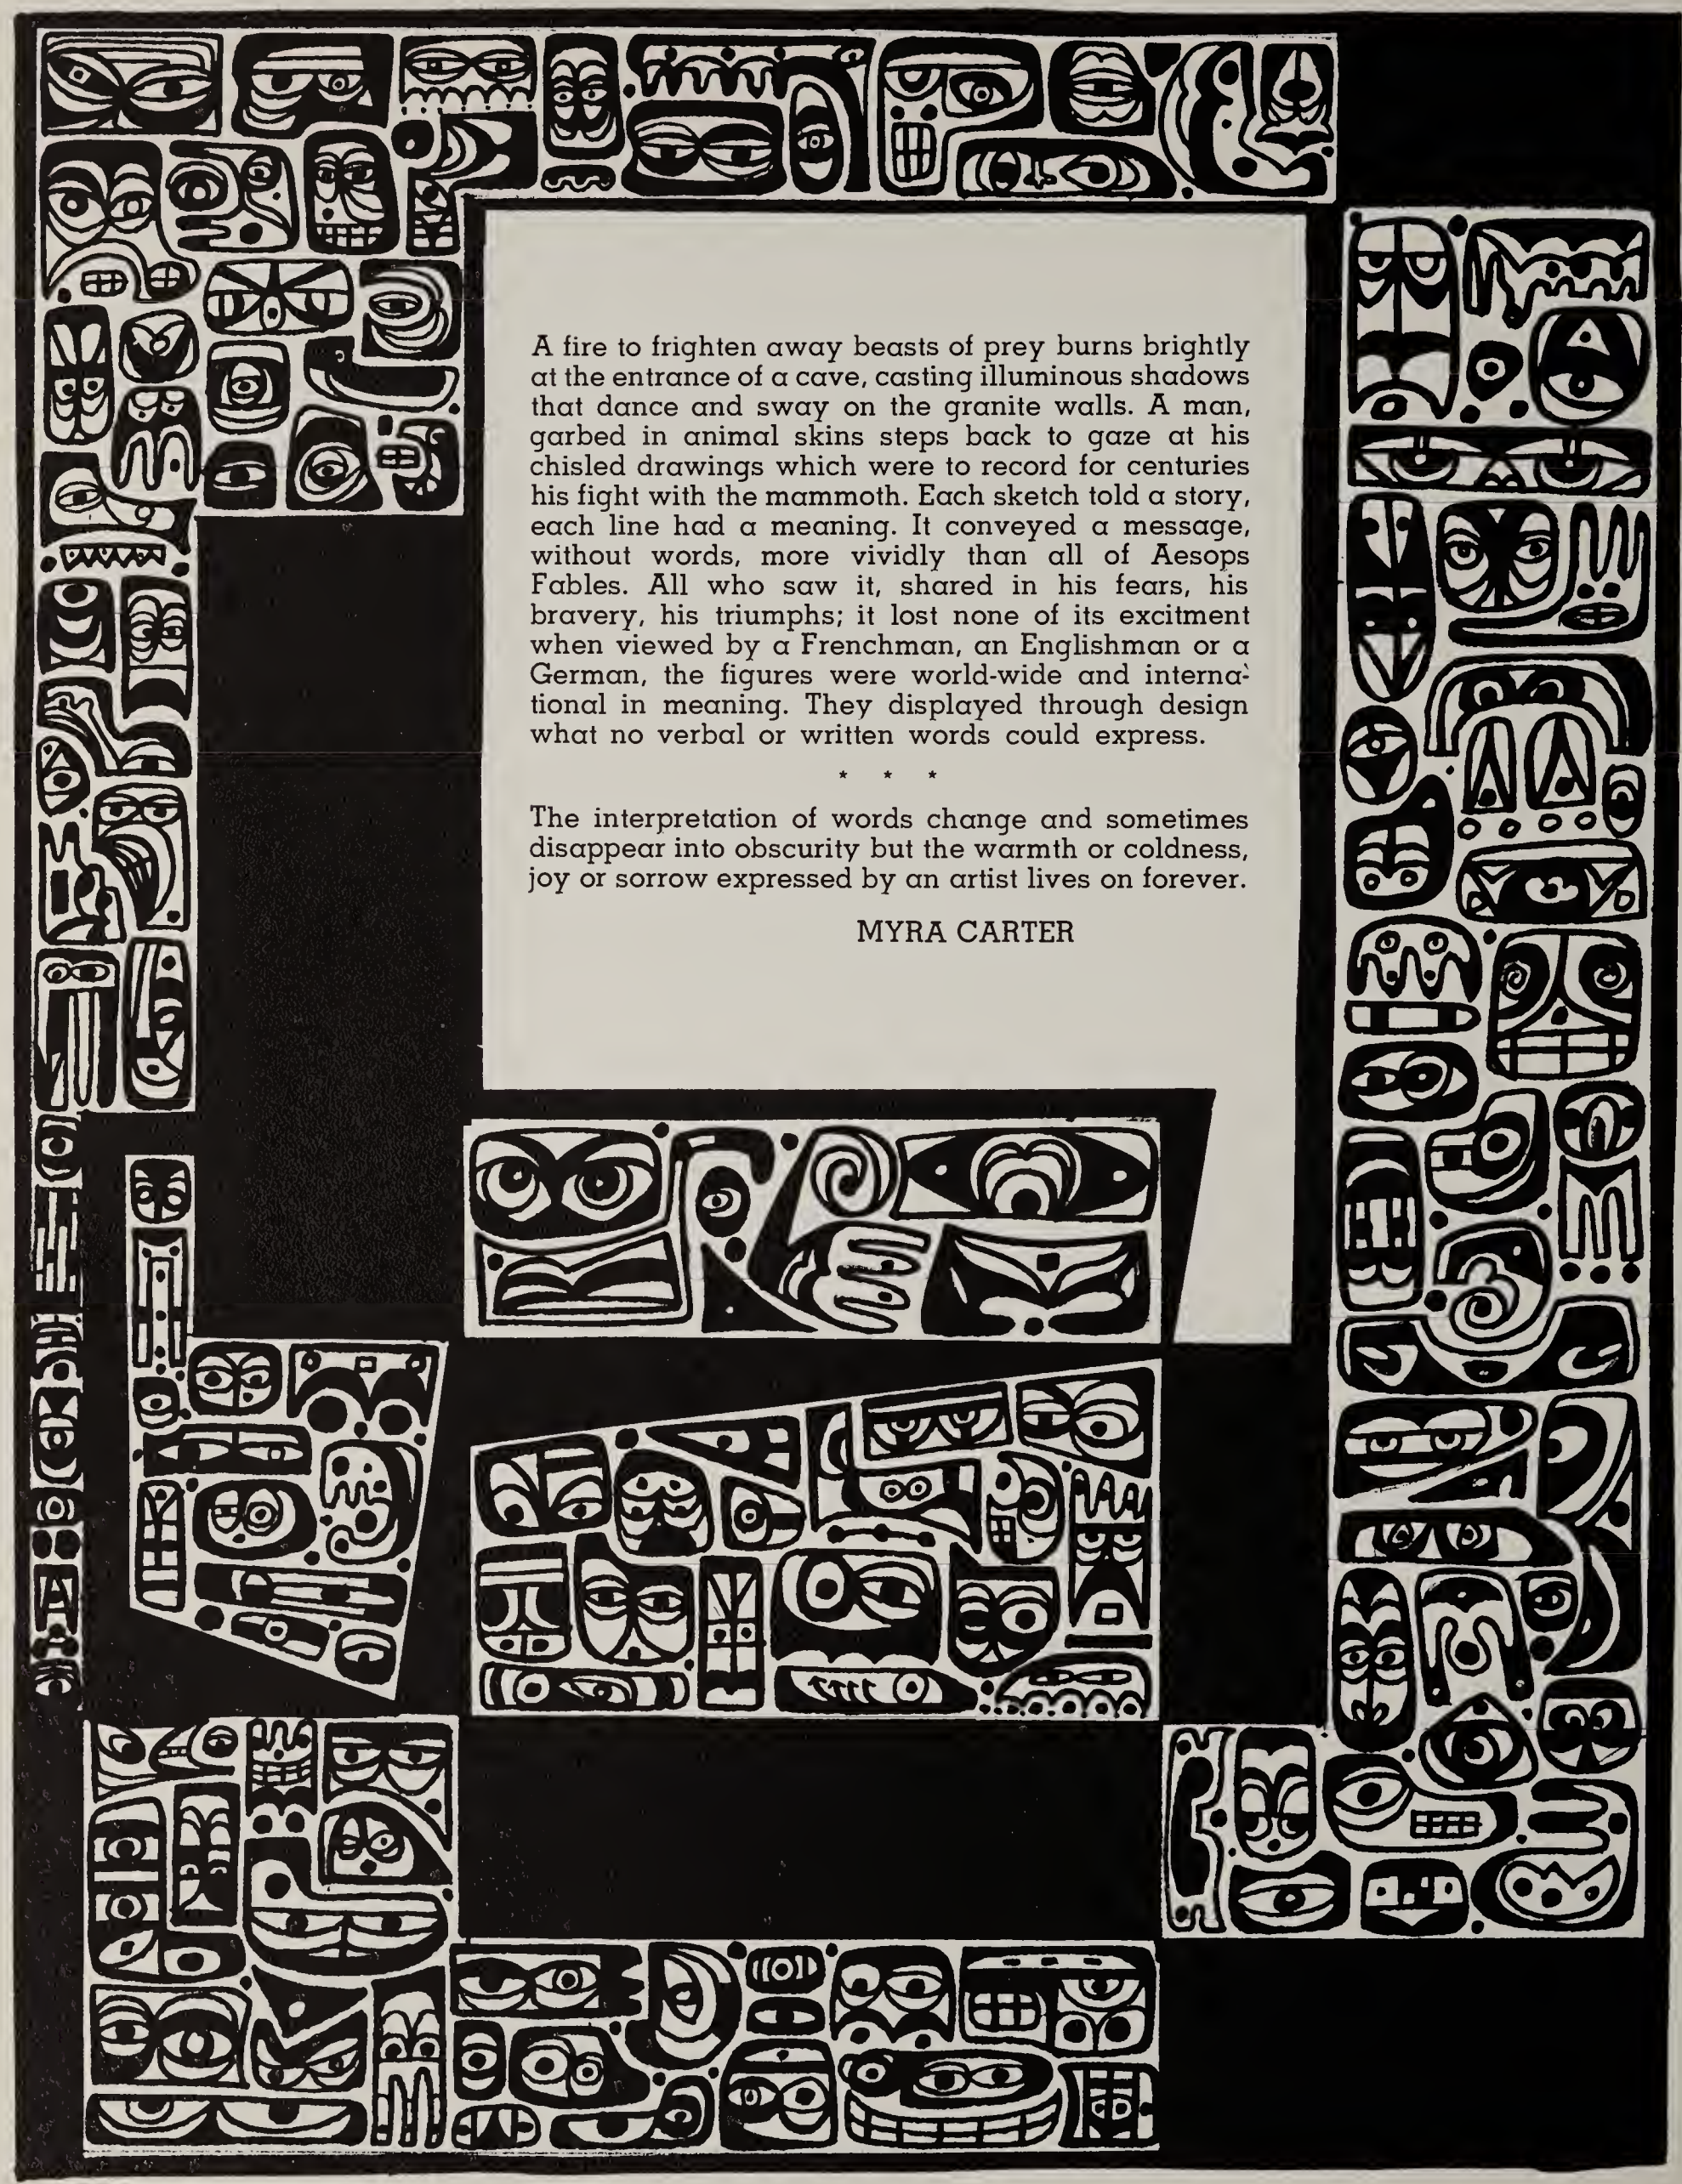
Purity - Accuracy - Quality

39 E. Monroe - AL 3-3470 - Phoenix, Arizona



A fire to frighten away beasts of prey burns brightly at the entrance of a cave, casting illuminous shadows that dance and sway on the granite walls. A man, garbed in animal skins steps back to gaze at his chisled drawings which were to record for centuries his fight with the mammoth. Each sketch told a story, each line had a meaning. It conveyed a message, without words, more vividly than all of Aesops Fables. All who saw it, shared in his fears, his bravery, his triumphs; it lost none of its excitment when viewed by a Frenchman, an Englishman or a German, the figures were world-wide and international in meaning. They displayed through design what no verbal or written words could express.

* * *

The interpretation of words change and sometimes disappear into obscurity but the warmth or coldness, joy or sorrow expressed by an artist lives on forever.

"Time and tide wait for no man." To a yearbook staff, these are familiar words, for every staffer considers time as the very lifeblood of an annual.

Your copy of the 1957 Westerner has been the product of the wonderful team that donated their time and talent in achieving our goal — a true, representative picture of West High. They are:

Mr. Sherman, Faculty Co-ordinator, whose belief in the staff members determined their belief in themselves.

John Cline and Kathy Patterson, Art Directors who combined their talent to produce the beautiful art work and distinctive layout.

Carolyn Divelbess and Eddie Humphrey, the efficient Reference and File Directors who saved many hours of hard work by their careful planning and accurate accounts.

Chuck Vanderhoofen, Photography Supervisior and his hard-working photographers, Dave Parker and Don Summers under the direction of Mr. Richard Zimmerman who have been of invaluable assistance.

Myra Carter, Copy Supervisor and Bruce Palmer, Productions Manager, who conscientiously directed the production of the annual.

Diane Rose, Business Manager, and the Ad staff under the direction of Mr. Naegle who managed the finances and edited the Ad section.

Staff Assistants: Ruthie Jennings, Milton Lemberg, Coy McCracken, and Carol White.

Desert Lithograph Company, Killgore Typesetting Company, and Library Bindery whose outstanding work and co-operation made this book possible.

The members of the staff wish to extend a special "thank you" to the Heads of each department for their courtesy and understanding.

Your Co-ordinator,
ROBYN TWEEDY

Dear Jerry,

Well, we're just about to make it. We're almost Seniors. Hot-Dog! I don't exactly know where to begin, but I'll try You're a wonderful guy Jerry, and I shall never forget. We've had our little arguments, but that's life. I'm proud, and happy that I can say that I'm a friend of Jerry Halvorson.

Never change, Jer, you would not be the good ole Jerry I've always known.

Remember Paul Jerily. I have to admit, that it was really fun playing with you, and join the balls.

I want to wish you the best of luck in football next year. I'll be dancing, and yelling for you, and you won't be sitting on the bench, either.

I hope our friendship doesn't end here at Post. I hope it lasts forever & ever.

I love you.

Helen Jean.

Don't let football go to your head. You're too nice a guy. Have a nice fun filled summer, and I'll see you back to school darker than you! Ha!! Ha!!

Love Again, Billie
